New Teacher Added in Marion School.

Miss Lilly Cook was chosen by the school board last Monday night at a special meeting, to take charge of the 6th grade. The 5th and 6th grades had heretofore been under the charge of Miss Florence Harris, but the crowded condition and unusually large number of pupils in that room made it necessary that she have help. The board decided to give her the 6th grade and elected Miss Lilly Cook to take charge of the 6th. The school is progressing splendidly and a spirit of harmony prevails throughout, with the exception of two teachers, and they bid fair to be quite successful, the entire faculty is composed of the true and the tried who maintained and are maintaining the high standard of proficiency and thoroughness for which the school has become famous.

Mrs. Minnie Minner Dead.

Mrs. Minnie Minner, widow of the late Rev. Wesley Minner, died Wednesday Sept. 19th, at her home in the Crittenden Springs vicinity, in the 73rd year of her age, having been born Oct. 7th, 1833. Mrs. Minner was a sister of T. E. Griffith and of Mrs. Jacob Springs, of Hampton, and of Mrs. James Champion, of Salem. Nine children survive her, they being John Terry and Mrs. Geo. Ann Carey, of Welsh City, Mo., both being the children by her first husband John Thomas Terry and Messrs. Harry, Luther, Sidney and Charlie Minner, who live in this county Mrs. R. H. Yates, of Sheridan, and Will C. and Mrs. Nellie Barnes, of Blodgett, Mo.

Mrs. Minner was a member of the Methodist church at Hurricane. The burial took place Thursday at the Love grave yard, Elder W. R. Gibbs officiating.

BIG BARBECUE AT GUTHRIE, KY

The Dark Tobacco Planters Association Held Its Second Meeting Saturday

HON O M JAMES ONE OF THE SPEAKERS

The Dark Tobacco Planters Association, which held its meeting at Guthrie, Ky., last Saturday, is a great success. There are 35,000 members and most of them were in attendance at this, its second meeting. A grand barbecue was given and a table 1500 feet long were filled with edibles to supply the crowd.

Besides Congressman James the following speakers were present: Senator Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, Congressman A. O. Stanley, former Congressman John S. Rhea, Lawrence Finn, C. H. Fort, and Joel B. Fort. They spoke from five different stands at the grounds. Ten brass bands furnished music of a lively character. "Pixie" and "My Old Kentucky Home," being the most frequently played airs.

In behalf of Mrs. Felix G. Ewing wife of the general manager, Congressman Stanley presented the association with a handsome banner. The back ground was of white and Mrs. Ewing had embroidered upon it a big tobacco plant in green silk.

Kentucky and Texas United.

J. A. Harmon, a wealthy ranch owner and live stock dealer, of Graham, Texas, and Miss Belle Robertson, daughter of W. H. Robertson, of the Crittenden Springs vicinity, were married at the home of the bride Wednesday evening of last week, Rev. J. S. Henry, of this city, officiating. The marriage is the culmination of a romance, and the courtship was conducted by letter. The couple had not met until the evening of the marriage. The groom arrived in Marion the day before from his home in the "Lone Star" state, and after arranging all the preliminaries went to the home of the bride's parents, where they were for the first time introduced. As both were pleased there was no reason for delay in the wedding and the ceremony was soon performed. The happy couple left at noon Friday for Dawson Springs. After a short sojourn there they left for their home in the far west, followed by the best wishes of the bride's many friends.

"TOBACCO KING" TO INSPECT HIS KINGDOM

Thomas Gallaher, of Belfast, Ireland Now On His Way to This Country.

Henderson, Ky., Sept. 18.—Mr. Thomas Gallaher, Belfast, Ireland the largest independent purchaser of American tobacco in the world, is on the ocean en route to this country to view the crop and overlook his great interests in this section of Kentucky. The American headquarters of the Gallaher firm are located in this city and his houses at Owensboro, Providence and other places are directed and controlled from Henderson.

Mr. Gallaher's trips are usually confined to a few days, but this visit will probably be prolonged somewhat. He will have to give some attention to the strip question, one in which he is deeply interested. It will require much time for him to inspect his great interests in Henderson and other places. He is expected to arrive within the next ten days.

Be sure to register next Tuesday October the 2nd.

DISCUSSION ON THE TEACHER'S INSTITUTE

Interesting Facts and Instructive Hints on This Important Work

BY REV. JAMES F. PRICE

A profitable discussion on each subject on the program ought to embrace:

1. Its importance.
2. Its purpose, or why.
3. Its time, or when.
4. Its method, or how.

No truth is more apparent in education than this: If a teacher does not clearly understand (not remember) why he is doing any work in hand, his work will be lifeless, his method will be borrowed, not originated.

THE PURPOSE OF EACH STUDY.

That the why of school studies is not understood as it should be by teachers generally can be demonstrated to any observer in two ways. First, let him ask himself to tell himself without halting why reading, writing, arithmetic, geography, etc., compose the curriculum. He will have to confess that his self-examination has proved that his knowledge is not what it should be. Second, let him take the opinion in writing or otherwise of several teachers upon the relative importance of arithmetic and geography. The result may exhibit a chaos that we ought all to be ashamed of.

THE TIME.

As the purpose of a study becomes apparent under the light of investigation, the time that ought to be given to it and the time (in the school life of a child) when he should begin it, becomes clear to the investigator. When grammar or physiology or history ought to be introduced, are serious practical questions that have to be decided every year by immature decision of chance or take them up in institute and decide them according to the laws of immutable truth?

THE RELATIONS OF STUDIES.

Crowded for time, as every country school teacher is, it becomes a necessity for him to learn how to make his work in one subject help that of another. If there is any one who needs to know how to make the writing and language lessons help the spelling and reading lessons, how to make the geography and history assist each other, how to make all studies throw light on the arithmetic, and how to make reaping give life to the whole work, that one is the teacher of seventy five children of all ages. The bringing out of these relations between studies in institute discussions will demonstrate the usefulness of many fetiches lingering in our schools, and result in employing more children's time in real, improving work, and less of it in memoriter tasks and vocal concert exercises.

THE METHOD, OR SHOW.

Out of the purpose understood, and out of the where and when comprehended in outline, the teacher having a work to do, begins to contrive his method of work. When institute discussions set the teacher to thinking, "How can I do that in my school?" there are they bearing the right fruit. When the best efforts of the conductor bring out no questions but only the comment, "That was a very fine talk," then very little if any of good has come to the hearers.

The true reasons why so called modern methods after being presented consecutively for twenty five years in institute, have failed to go into school to any great extent is simply because they were not presented with the clear light of the Way that inspired them shining upon them, and into the understanding of the teacher and pupil, arousing his sluggish conscience and causing him to feel the impulse, I must.

A Letter from Rev. P. L. H. Walker to Hon. J. W. Blue, Sr., Both Long Since Passed from Earth

LOCAL OPTION QUESTION WAS UP THEN AS IT IS NOW

The third epistle from Paul to Timothy has been put into the hands of John, his friend, in that friend Bob has limited me to some extent, so that I cannot take a while to chase after you.

You say, friend John, that was a little surprise that I would venture in such language as I have just said. But now I will say, friend John, that I am a man of the Scriptures, and I feel those words all through those certain chapters. Here are some. "Wine has deceived me" (Psalms 119:118). And some whose right hand is against their head is deceived" (Psalms 119:120). "Men of the world are as drunkards" (Psalms 102:5). And some of the teachers from the latter times of this world, (Isaiah 54:1). And some who come to be deceived by the teachers of this world" (Isaiah 11:12). And some of the fathers of men" (Isaiah 11:14). And some who make the their religion" (Isaiah 18:15). But John, of these characters I have seen and tell the name of their influence for the last forty years. But friend John, you say it would be hard to convince you that a minister of the gospel would use any such language. Do you not suppose that the people whom David, Isaiah, Hosea and Job spoke the above words had the same thoughts about them that you have about me? But you say that you have tried to excuse me on the ground of my being old and chinked, but, friend John, there is no consolation after all, that is unkind and not tell the truth. So on the other hand, I have not only tried to excuse you but have done it for saying I made a broad sweep on temperance people and that I will accept the doctrine that Christ was a wine-bibber to suit my convenience. This you know friend John, is false. But I have forgiven you, knowing that you are young, and the probability is very good that you will never be otherwise.

I advised you to preach Christ with the holy spirit. If that gave possession of the people's hearts, you would have a temperance society of God's own making to bring forth all the fruits of the spirit. There are the regenerated and spiritual children of God, who need no affliction nor yoking with unbelievers to keep them from getting drunk. This temperance you nor any one else ever heard me say a word against. These are

Her Complaint.

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas: "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish. Sold by Woods & Orme."

It is a pleasure to me and my friends, the people of Crutenden Co. to say of Watkins Anodyne Linctment. It relieved me of rheumatism in my shoulders when I had not had my hand on my head for two years. It cured, when every thing else failed. It has been worth a thousand dollars to me.

THURSDAY SEPT. 27, 1906

We are authorized to announce W. F. COWDER of Smithland as a candidate to represent the District of Crittenden and Livingston in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

They had a heavy fall of snow in Montana this year in advance of the Autumnal equinox. The sun crossed the equator last Friday and as usual bad weather has followed.

Cuba is holding the world's attention just at this time. Secretaries Taft and Bacon visited the island with avowed intention of bringing about peace and order out of rebellion and chaos. Their mission is a most delicate one but they are known to be equal to it.

The good record made by any employee is his or her best and only certificate for continuous employment. Therefore the one whose conscience tells him or her that the full duty has been done, honest service rendered and no shirking done need have no fear of losing his or her place. Such are always sought and wanted on every hand.

By the kindness of Mrs. B. Walker we are able to copy this week an interesting item from a copy of the CRITTENDEN PRESS dated July 20th, 1881. The paper is over 25 years old and was mailed to her father, the late Rueben French. On second page under the caption of "Looking Backward" will be found a letter from Rev. P. L. H. Walker to Hon. J. W. Blue, Sr. Other items from this old paper will appear next week.

We regret that the amount of the stock of the Crittenden Press, owned by the Yandell-Gugenheim Company, will not appear until October 1st or 11th next.

The Yandell-Gugenheim Company, of Marion, Ky., has just received a large shipment of the latest styles of fall and winter clothes, and is now ready to receive orders for the same. The stock is complete and the prices are the lowest.

News of New Salem: Bro. Eben Brewster represented New Salem church at Bethlehem Presbytery.

News of Panther Hollow: "Bum" took care not to deny the soft impeachment about that winking business.

News of Stonewall: A good many of our people will leave for Washington Territory next week.

Work will commence on the Piney shed next week.

"Sambo" of Chappel Hill has a lengthy letter and says the fire got into C. C. Woodall's and Mr. John Hill's fence and destroyed two or three hundred panels.

R. M. Franks writes from Hurricane and says J. W. Guess gave a singing, conducted by Prof. Cunningham.

Green Chapel News: Reports the death of Wm. Cain of Weston.

F. A. L. of Shady Grove writes: Miss Ida Dean is teaching a good school here.

"Observer" of Fredonia: Mrs. Jane Brasher died last Thursday at the residence of her father at Salem.

LOLA.

Mr. Mat Mitchell has moved on Lem Watson's place.

Bro. Lowey and Bro. Price are conducting a meeting at Hopwell church, and are having some fine preaching. Quite a lot of the Lola people went last night.

Some of our young folks attended the singing at W. H. Mays last Sunday night.

Bring you road claims to me. Henry Haynes.

Mrs. Paris, of Marion, who has been visiting her son R. S. Paris of this place, returned home Monday.

J. E. Johnson is just completing a nice two-story residence in our town.
